

The programming on XM makes my life so much easier. It would be unreal to change what has been done. XM makes everyday commutes much better and I could not live without the Instant Traffic updates as well. XM is a prime example of freedom of speech and changing any of the line up would be a direct violation. At least that is how I feel.